

Chamber Plans Exciting Year

Jerry S. Bobb

More than 100 people attended the Chamber of Commerce dinner dance at Lorenz' last Saturday night and saw the new officers of the Chamber installed.

Jerry Bobb, manager of the Antioch office of Illinois Bell, is the Chamber's new president. Dale Starkoy is first vice president, Ray Jensen is second vice president and Preston Reckers, Jr., is secretary.

New members of the board of directors are Henry A. Pickard, Jr., Ken Schultz and Steve Rzyzko. Holdover members of the board are George Hahn and Lew Simon.

Outgoing president John Romer was unable to be present at the Chamber dinner.

Music for the affair was furnished by the Scotch Lads. President Bobb and his officers plan to redouble their efforts to draw the Industrial area into active membership in the Chamber. Rates for industrial members are being adjusted downward. Pickard and China recently joined the Chamber, the first major industry to become a member.

A new addition to the standing committees will be a program committee. "We have an exciting year coming," President Bobb said.

Br-R-R! 16 Below!

The temperature sank to 16 below in Antioch Wednesday morning, the lowest temperature of the winter and the lowest for this year.

Fortunately, Antioch was spared the deep snow that preceded the cold wave in several of the Midwest states. However, a strong wind Monday and Tuesday night drifted the light snowfall and made it seem much colder than it was.

Zero to 5 below is predicted for Wednesday night as we go to press, and more clear, cold weather tomorrow.

Ill Student Wants Mail

Gerald Anderson, a 16-year-old student at Antioch High School, is in the hospital again and would like to hear from some of his school friends.

Gerald has been fighting a blood disease ever since he was born, and is no stranger to hospitals. He doesn't enjoy his sojourns in the hospital any more than the rest of us, and letters from friends do help to pass the time.

Gerald's illness at present is complicated by pneumonia. He had a blood transfusion Monday.

For those who would like to write, the address is Gerald Anderson, Room 1318, Illinois Research Hospital, 808 South Wood, Chicago, Ill. Gerald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Rt. 1, Antioch.

'Full Speed Ahead' For Band's Montreal Trip

Plans to send the Antioch Grade School on the trip to the Montreal Exposition next summer received full approval of the Board of Education Tuesday night.

Previously, the board had withheld approval of the present pending investigation of insurance coverage for the group by School Attorney Ted Larson. Tuesday night Larson advised board members that the best and most economical plan would be to raise the amount of coverage of the school's present policy, with the Band Parents organization footing the bill for the difference.

The Band Parents have been working on a fund-raising campaign since shortly after the invitation was extended to the Band.

The cost of the trip has not yet been ascertained, but the Band Parents are tentatively working toward a $10,000 goal.

The present insurance policy held by the school covers individuals to $200,000, with a $500,000 limit. Attorney Larson asked that the policy be raised to $500,000 per individual with a $1 million limit for purposes of this trip. He also advised that the Band Parents go ahead with plans for additional accident coverage.

Plans were also made to send each parent of a member of the band a form giving the child permission to make the trip.

The Band Parents have a full schedule of fund-raising events planned. Tuesday night they received permission from the village board to move the Band's Tag Day from their customary July date to Saturday, June 10.

A bake sale will be held at the former Ford garage Saturday, Jan. 21, starting at 9 a.m. Mrs. William Carriek, chairman of the sale, has asked that any Band Parent who will bake for the sale should contact her at 395-1466. Proceeds go to the Tour. Candy will be on sale for those who don't want bakery goods. The candy is also on sale at 1-hour Martinizing.

Monday, Feb. 20, the Band Parents are sponsoring a spaghetti dinner at the Antioch Grade School cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m. After the dinner, a joint meeting of the Oakland and Antioch Grade Schools will be held. A concert will be played by the Grade School Band.

Off-Street Parking Area Runs Into Snag

Plans for more off-street parking for Antioch's Main St. were approved at Tuesday night's meeting of the village board.

The new public parking lot is the area next to the former Lyons-Ryan Ford Agency. The lot is being leased by the First National Bank and Barnstable's Department Store, in cooperation with some of the other Main St. merchants. The merchants asked the board to lease the lot from them at $1 a year and provide policing, snow removal and lighting. The board approved the proposal.

In the meantime, the board ran into a snag in its efforts to keep the parking area behind the stores on the west side of Main St. open for customers. An ordinance had been prepared for approval by the board limiting use of the parking area by occupants of the buildings bordering it. At present the board said, Main St. merchants and workers are leaving cars there all day, defeating the purpose of the lot.

Charles Cernak appeared before the board and requested seven parking permits for his staff and tenants. The parking is necessary to his business, he said.

Cernak said he had been reluctant to join in the plan as he had sufficient parking area for all occupants of his building. Mayor Toft disagreed with him, and said they might as well scrap the parking area if Cernak insisted on seven parking places.

The mayor suggested that he would meet with tenants of Cernak's building and try to persuade them to use the public parking lot on Broadway. Passage of the ordinance covering the parking area was deferred pending outcome of the talks.

Mayor Ray Toft announced that a public hearing would be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 22, by the Board of Local Improvements on the Hennings Court Sewer & Water facilities. A hearing was also scheduled for Feb. 28 on extension of the Anita St. storm sewer from Anita to Depot. Property owners affected will be notified.

An ordinance was approved naming a 60 foot road from Poplar Ave. to Turner Drive after the former mayor, Murrill Cunningham. The street will be named Cunningham Drive.

The board voted to purchase the three new lights on Main St. which were installed by Antioch Electric on a trial basis. The board also voted to purchase eleven more of the lights for the business area, and to advertise for bids on the eleven lights. The bids will be opened Feb. 21.

The new lights are called Lucalox, a multi-vapor lamp. Advantages cited are that they give more light, are more economical to operate, and have less fading as they near the stage where they must be replaced.

The lights are being installed in some eastern states, but Antioch is giving them their first trial in the Midwest. Superintendent of Public Works Edgar Sorenson said he had arranged for them while seeking better lighting for Main St. Consulting Gordon Volting of Antioch Electric in a search for better lighting, a salesman had recommended the Lucalox lamps and arranged for the demonstration installation of the three lights.

Three months will be required for delivery of the lamps, as manufacturing is not keeping pace with demands at this time. A letter from Mundelein officials asked if Antioch would be interested in renting equipment from that village for cleaning catch basins. Mundelein, the letter said, is contemplating purchase of a machine to clean the basins because of rising prices of contractors for such work. Their decision, they said, would be influenced by interest of surrounding villages in renting the machinery on an hourly basis. The matter was turned over to Simonsen for study.

Mayor Ray Toft announced that a second meeting of a group interested in starting a Community Chest for Northwest Lake County communities. The meeting will be held Jan. 31 at the Grayslake Savings & Loan.

Enthusiasm for the project was high at the first meeting of groups from various communities. Toft said, and Antioch was well represented.

The board approved the purchase of a key-filing cabinet for the Police station at a cost of $102. The police have keys to most business establishments in town and need a cabinet for storage.

The board refused to consider an ordinance proposed by the police committee to establish a No Parking zone on Hillside near the cemetery. The ordinance was aimed at parking of ice fishermen. Mayor Toft said the ordinance would not cure the problem, but only shift the parking to other areas. "It's a problem, but that's a private lake and I don't know what we can do about it," Toft said. "This ordinance would create a problem in the cemetery area during the funerals, and simply shift the parking to other streets. We'll simply be chasing them from one street to another."

Increase Rate, Size Limits of Parcel Post

Use of ZIP Code makes it easier to mail packages after January 15, Postmaster Joseph Wolf of Antioch said today.

New rates and a new system for identifying parcel post zones went into effect on that date as provided in legislation signed into law by President Johnson on September 20, 1966, the Postmaster pointed out.

The rate increases will average about 10 cents a parcel, Joe Wolf said. Starting July 1, the law provides for a series of size and weight increase on packages mailed between first-class offices. Antioch is a 1st class office. The size and weight increase will be in five annual steps, the last coming on July 1, 1971.

Use of ZIP Code in the recipient's address will enable the sender or a mail clerk to quickly determine the proper zone, and thus the rate, for the package. The zones will be based on the distance a parcel travels between the 552 sectional centers in the country, Wolf said.

By consulting a simple chart, which is available at all post offices, the zone can be readily identified because the first three numbers of the ZIP Code represent the sectional center. This replaces a method in which a directory often had to be consulted to locate the proper zone for each of the nation's 33,000 post offices.

The new rates will range from 40 cents for a three-pound parcel destined for local delivery to 60 cents for the same parcel to zone 3 (150 to 300 miles) to $1.05 to zone 8 (over 1,800 miles). The new zoning method will also apply to air parcel post, catalogs and to publishers who pay zone rates on the advertising portion of their periodicals.

Postmaster Wolf noted that all parcels mailed between post offices within the North Suburban sectional center will be charged at the first zone rate. There are 136 post offices within the North Suburban sectional center.

The new rates are expected to provide an additional $74 million a year for the Post Office Department. The later size and weight increases will add another $32 million a year. The additional revenue is to help keep the Department within 4 percent of costs on parcel post as the law requires.

Bank Report Reflects Growth of Antioch Area

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Bank of Antioch, held January 11, 1967, a bright picture was painted of the economic development of the Antioch area during the past year. It was reported that total assets of the bank are now $10,352,771.62, an increase of $2,104,400 over the December 31, 1965 figure. Loan activity kept pace with this highly satisfactory growth.

The report to the stockholders by the President, William E. Brook, emphasized the satisfaction with the new location of the bank and the efficiency of the quarters. The 65 car parking lot has been of great assistance to customers and activity at the drive-up windows has been much more than originally anticipated. In the interest of greater speed and efficiency, and in keeping with modern procedures, more accounting techniques of the bank were transferred to a computer with a Chicago correspondent. It is felt that this move provides many benefits not achieved with ordinary on-premises bookkeeping methods. $800,000 was transferred from the Undivided Profit account of the bank to its Surplus balance during 1966 and the regular dividend was paid to stockholders. Predictions by bank officers and directors at the stockholders meeting look for a continued substantial growth of the bank, based on a strong faith in the future industrial and residential development of our area. Directors of the bank, elected for 1967 were: William E. Brook, Irving W. Carey, Fred O. Hawkins, Carl D. Hughes, Dr. James W. Kopriva, Ted C. Larson, James W. McMillen, Lloyd E. Murrie and Edmund R. Strang.

ACHS Choir In Choral Festival

The Antioch High School Choir will be among the choirs taking part in a Choral Festival at Lake Forest High School Saturday, Jan. 21. Miss Margaret Hillis, nationally renowned conductor, will direct the Festival.

Participating in the festival will be high school choirs from Antioch, Libertyville, Mundelein and Lake Forest, under the direction of Ralph Brooke, Miss Nancy Anderson, Miss Susan Mitchell and

Mrs. Carol Plack, respectively.

Miss Hillis is the founder and director of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus. She attended the University of Indiana and has studied with Robert Shaw and Julius Herford at the Julliard School of Music. She has held numerous conducting positions, including New York Chamber Soloists, NBC Opera Co., New York City Opera Co. and the Santa Fe Opera. Presently, she divides her time between directing the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus, Kenosha Symphony Orchestra, the American Opera Society and score reading and editing.

Rehearsals for the 180 voice choir will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will continue until 4:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend these rehearsals and also the evening concert which will be presented, free of charge, at 8 p.m. in the Lake Forest High School auditorium.

Miss Hillis will conduct the festival choir in the performance of Mozart's Missa Brevis in F major and the "Hallelujah" from the Mount of Olives by Beethoven. Each individual choir will be performing two numbers in the evening concert.

The festival is sponsored by Lake Forest High School and the Lake Forest Community Music Association. This is the 9th annual festival presented by the CMA, the third clinic and the second year of co-sponsorship by the High School.

Mrs. Plack is general chairman for the event, and George Borich, chairman of the music department, at Lake Forest High School, and Dr. Harold Bauer, conductor of the Community Music Association, are serving in an advisory capacity.

Mink Fashions To Be Feature of TV Show

An invitation to appear as a regular guest on the weekly Maggie Daly Fashion Show at the Continental Plaza Hotel, Chicago, has been accepted by Harriet's Imperial Furs, of Wadsworth, according to Harriet Serdar, owner of the salon located at the Imperial Mink Ranch on Wadsworth Rd., Wadsworth.

The Wadsworth salon was featured on the noon-time parade of fashions Tuesday and a segment of the show was filmed for showing on Jim Conway's Morning Show (WBKB - Channel 7) next Tuesday.

Shown Tuesday were mink garments fashioned from pelts raised at the Imperial Mink Ranch, dyed beaver jackets, a sable jacket and sports fur sweater-jackets.

The invitation to appear as a regular guest on the show was extended to Harriet's after two earlier appearances.

Card Party At Woman's Club

The January 16 meeting of the Antioch Woman's Club was a pot luck luncheon and card party. Prizes were awarded to the winning card players.

The hostess committee for the afternoon were the Mesdames Anton Stanich, Jerome Vogler, John Horton, Frank Benes, Morris Pickus, Dorothy Tague, Gus Costoff and Donald Purdy.

The Antioch Chapter of the American Field Service needs YOU. It needs your moral and financial support and especially right now, it needs a home for next year's foreign exchange student.

So far no home has been offered, and if one is not available the A.F.S. program in the Antioch Community High School District can no longer function as intended. The qualifications and requirements for being a host family for a student are not difficult to meet. It is not required that the family has a high school student of their own, although this is desirable. It is hoped that several families will fill out applications, for this will make it easier to make a final decision. Call Mrs. Leslie Sorenson (395-4017), president of the organization, to secure an application or for further information.

A.F.S. announces that February 14 is not only Valentine's Day, but Antioch's own A.F.S. Day. All interested individuals, and members of civic organizations and businesses of the A.C.H.S. district, are invited to a deluxe dessert buffet to be served at 7:00 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

The guest of honor will be this year's foreign exchange student, Diana Maria Stagg, from Ecuador, South America. A.F.S. wishes the people in the district to meet Diana and understand the importance of the A.F.S. program. This program helps to promote understanding and good will between our country and others. The organization hopes to be able to send one of our own Antioch High School students abroad in the future.

An interesting program is being planned centered around Diana and our past foreign exchange students. Anyone who is planning on attending should make reservations with either Mrs. Robert Jensen (395-0539) or Mrs. Roy Nelson (395-1807) by February 10 so that enough desserts can be prepared so no one will go away hungry.

The Antioch News Is

by Charles B. Watson

The past eighteen years of my life have been spent in a community adjacent to the Village of Antioch; the past two years, in Antioch proper; a delightful and satisfying place to dwell.

During that period of time and according to habit, I have made many observations and it came to me quite forcibly that a community the size of Antioch without a home paper would be like a ship without a rudder.

A community may be blest by, or disappointed in a home paper that poses as its medium of popular news presentation or expression.

The Antioch News for the past eighty years has been the medium covering Antioch and adjacent territory and for many years has been the source of such information that has won my admiration for and loyalty to our village.

No matter how sincere or impartial the attitude assumed by the Antioch News may have been, and still is, it is always subject to criticism that is unhesitatingly dished up by some of its readers.

The consoling thought, however, regarding this particular common habit is "that it is far easier to be critical than it is to be correct."

Being a constant reader of Our Paper, I am conscious of many of its problems that are faced every week, and I am constrained to express myself in its behalf.

A natural and normal development is taking place in Our Paper and it is so noticeable that I am sure the reading public will be pleased and well served, and merit public cooperation. The merchants of our village are not being harassed by out-of-town advertisers for Our Paper makes no attempt to solicit out-of-town merchants.

The features and thoughts expressed lead us to one very definite conclusion and that is that the Antioch News has been and still is, "OUR PAPER," unvarnished by any personal desire to pay any unearned credit to the deserving publishers.

We, as citizens of Antioch, are extended an open invitation to participate in adding general public interest to Our Paper by submitting articles of general reader interest at any time.

Let this idea sink in and create action.

A Pat On The Back

A pat on the back is in order for the Antioch Post Office and Postmaster Joe Wolf for the efficiency with which the Christmas mail was handled.

The Antioch Post Office had its biggest load in all time, and this was the first Christmas rush for the Postmaster. After reading about the dismal failure of the Chicago Post Office to cope with the mail we were becoming slightly apprehensive about mailing Christmas packages.

We're sure everyone at the Post Office is glad Christmas is over, and that it will be another year before the big deluge comes again. However, they remained cheerful during those trying days, in addition to getting all the mail out on time. Congratulations, Postmaster and all your staff, on a job well and cheerfully done.

Lurlean Wallace was sworn in as Alabama's first Governor Monday, but there is little doubt that husband George will continue to wear the gubernatorial pants in the Executive Mansion.

It could suggest a possible solution for Sheriff Harold Scheskie who is having trouble settling on a Chief Deputy.

Why not appoint Mrs. Scheskie to the post and then four years from now she could become the candidate for Sheriff with her husband's backing? Sheriff Scheskie could stay on as Chief deputy thus keeping the office in the family for a succession of terms. And speaking of Chief Deputy, it is surprising that nobody has advanced the name of John Babcock, of Cuba Township, as a candidate for Chief Deputy Sheriff or Chief Deputy Treasurer.

It is almost automatic for Babcock to be listed as a contender for any good county post available even though the amiable Cuba precinct committeeman seldom if ever seeks the job on his own.

One Way Ticket

Another Main Street business starts in Dec. 1967 and runs through most of 1968.

Former County Board Chairman Kenneth Henke, of Benton Township, is chairman of the Lake County committee and is reportedly open for suggestions regarding special events to be held in the area to help attract visitors to the area during the year long celebration.

This celebration should be the signal for resort operators in the Chain O' Lakes area in particular, but other sections as well, to plan some re-decorating and refurbishing.

Several million visitors are expected in Illinois during the year-long festivities and Lake County should attract its share because of the many attractions here, but the opportunity can be blown if some provision is not made to entertain and accommodate the visitors.

Plans should be made for a full year of activities built around the incomparable Chain O' Lakes, but the activities will be meaningless if the facilities available for visitors are second-rate.

One of the best kept of all political secrets is the time, date, and place for meetings of the non-partisan organizations which enter slates of candidates in township races.

These closed corporations are as secretive as fraternal lodges when it comes to letting the electorate in on their organization secrets and this secrecy helps explain why there is so little interest in the township elections which in turn make it possible for these semi-secret groups to retain control in their townships' elections, after election.

In the larger townships which have assistant supervisors to be elected there are spasmodic attempts by "outsiders" to find out who is to be slated for office with the misguided notion they might want to take a hand in the slating.

This effrontery is usually met with vague guesses at the caucus date, evasion, or outright misinformation.

After a while township officials apparently come to regard the township government as their own private realm with the voters of the township given the right to cast a vote for the hand-picked favorites of the township organization.

This could be a substantial argument in favor of having each township elect its officials on national party tickets so that at least the precinct committeemen and the party officials will have some knowledge of who the candidates will be prior to the final date for filing nominating petitions.

ness will be folding up so, and there are also rumors of a rocky romance in the air.

Your Congressman
Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClure

Expert prognosticators of the press, radio, and television are forecasting the Great Issues of the 90th Congress. These experts predict that Vietnam, taxes, and a second look at Great Society programs will highlight the new session.

With 47 additional Republicans (for a total of 187 Republicans to 248 Democrats), complete one-party control of the United States House of Representatives has indeed abruptly. Administration leaders may consider that this relieves them of some of their responsibility to originate and enact landmark legislation. The closer balance between the parties should, indeed, encourage the entire Congress, as the legislative branch of government, to develop its own programs. Also, it is to be hoped that the Republican policy of proposing "constructive alternatives" will be continued.

Although all of the 535 Members of the House and Senate have opportunities to debate—and to vote—upon the Great Issues, the principal decisions will be preceded by action of the Members of the respective Committees before whom the issues will be pending.

The full House membership of 435 will not have a chance at any of the major congressional proposals until after Committee chairmen have authorized hearings and the relatively few members of key committees have debated secretly—and have made their decisions.

Questions involving the war in Vietnam will be debated—and decided initially by Members of the House Armed Services and Appropriations Committees. (These 88 Members comprise about one-fifth of the total House Membership of 435.) The 25-member House Ways and Means Committee will consider possible new tax proposals. (Less than 6% of the overall House membership.)

Revision or repeal of the "Great Society" enactments may be decided by the 31 Congressmen who serve on the House Education and Labor Committee. Proposals to amend the United States Constitution (such as the School Prayer Amendment, etc.) as well as measures affecting our federal civil rights laws, criminal laws, (and many others) will come before the House Judiciary Committee upon which this Member serves.

Except in the case of the Ways and Means Committee (which acts only as a full committee), small subcommittees comprised of from 5 to 11 members will be the real keys to the legislative problems of the 90th Congress. Of course, throughout the session the chairmen of the 20 House Standing Committees will decide what measures shall be given priority, and then authorize the hearings which must precede committee action.

With the exception of appropriation bills, the 15-member House Rules Committee generally determines the rules under which measures (which have received Committee approval) are to be debated by the House. Where the Rules Committee fails to act within a period of 21 days, the Speaker may nevertheless schedule a measure for House debate at the request of a committee chairman. This is the so-called 21-day rule. Prior to adoption of this rule at the last session, a majority (8 members) of the Rules Committee could bottle up any and all measures, notwithstanding the desires of a majority

As It Happens!

Oaths to Office Holders

With but little fanfare the new State Treasurer, Adlai Stevenson III, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Ray Page, were sworn into office before a Joint Session of the Legislature on Monday.

It Does Make a Difference

When Ray Page took his oath of office, he took it in front of the largest Republican Majority in Joint Session since the Civil War Days. The boys really "whooped it up" for their Republican Office Holder. The ovation went on for ten minutes as compared to a three or four seconds of applause for the Democrat State Treasurer. It was a new experience for the Republicans to be sitting in heavy majority and really proved how sweet the taste of victory can be.

His Politics was Showing

Rep. Dan Pierce (D-Ill.) became quite political when the Republican Majority in the House introduced a Resolution to investigate the scandal ridden Chicago Sanitary District.

He attempted to amend the resolution to include the North Shore Sanitary District and charged that it was run of the Members of the House. Thus, it should be clear that the results of the 90th Congress, which convened on January 10th, will be controlled by a relatively few of the 435 Members of the House.

With the Senate's extraordinary privilege of unlimited debate (filibuster) and the increased control of Senate committee chairmen over the affairs of their committees, an even smaller group can dominate the direction of legislation in the United States Senate.

However, regardless of the apparent influence of powerful committee chairmen and party leaders, every individual Member of the new Congress will help mold—and perhaps even decide—the legislative proposals affecting Vietnam, taxes, and the Great Society. For, in the last analysis, votes cast on the floor of the Senate and the House of Representatives will determine the final fate of these Great Issues of 1967.

by Republican Political

"Hacks" or former committeemen. He was taken to task on this statement by Rep. W. J. Murphy (R-Antioch) as quite the opposite is true because the North Shore Sanitary District Trustees are appointed by our Judges, and there is no Judicial District in the entire United States that has finer judges than Lake County. Their appointments to the Sanitary District down through the years have been outstanding civic minded men whose names served like a Who's Who of Lake County; and this District has always operated in a scandal-free, efficient and honorable manner. Rep. Pierce's amendment was defeated.

Controversial Legislation

The General Assembly is off and running with a deluge of projected new legislation, some of it that will be quite controversial such as a Resolution calling for a Constitutional Convention and for annual Sessions. While good arguments can be made for both of these Resolutions, this writer wonders if we should so readily leap with both feet into the "JetAge." A Constitutional Convention would be for the purpose of giving the people of the State an entirely new Constitution all in one grand sweep which would cover everything from new taxes to office holders, etc. The people of the State in the General Election last fall rejected two of the three amendments on the ballot, and this is a demonstration that overall our people are not demanding or indeed ready for such a radical change. I dislike discarding the known old ways for a bunch of brand new untried ways. Change just for change sake is not good. The Annual Sessions would bring on a deluge of new laws every year instead of every other year as we now have it. I believe our problem now is too many laws, and annual Sessions will only add to the problem.

Pleasant Possibility It has been encouraging to read that the new Senator Karl Berning is not blindly accepting his Republican Leader's (Senator Russell Ar-

Jan. 23 Deadline For Admission To ISU

New students must have a complete application and all necessary transcripts to the Office of Admissions and Records before January 23, in order that it can be processed in time for registration.

Former ISU students not in attendance the first semester of 1966-67 must file a readmission application with the Office of Admission and Records before the 23rd.

Dr. Howard R. Ivens, director of admissions and records, said the deadline is necessary to expedite processing of new applicants before registration.

(rington) mass of reform legislation carte blanche. Karl is already demonstrating he has a mind of his own by his outspoken criticism on the Credit Reform Bills and the Legislature interfering with the re-apportioning of our County Boards. Keep it up, Karl—Senator Arrington and some of your fellow Republicans won't like it—but the people you represent will.

Congratulation Rep. John Conolly (R-Gurnee) has just been appointed as Chairman of the Public Utilities Committee in the House by the new Leadership. Congratulations, John, that is quite an achievement for a third term.

Well, we will see what happens now and report to you from Springfield—As It Happens!

The regular campus registration will be Jan. 31 to Feb. 2, with classes beginning on the 3rd.

Illinois State's second semester enrollment is expected to be just slightly less than the 9,699 who registered for the first semester.

With the proceeds, they purchased a troop flag.

Nineteen of the 28 girls in the troop earned their skating badges, and were awarded them on Dec. 20 at the Antioch Roller Skating Rink. The girls demonstrated the styles they had learned.

A Court of Honor was held on Dec. 21. The girls received their badges and troop crest at that time. After the meeting, they played games, sang songs, had a gift exchange, and gave their mothers the plaque they had made. They made either a rooster or a chicken, using splitpeas, rice, corn, sunflower seeds and then painted the seeds. Mrs. Gerald Hazel is troop leader.

Chamber Plans Exciting Year

Jerry S. Bobb

More than 100 people attended the Chamber of Commerce dinner dance at Lorenz' last Saturday night and saw the new officers of the Chamber installed.

Jerry Bobb, manager of the Antioch office of Illinois Bell, is the Chamber's new president. Dale Starkey is first vice president, Ray Jensen is second vice president and Preston Reckers, Jr., is secretary.

New members of the board of directors are Henry A. Pickard, Jr., Ken Schultz and Steve Rzyzko. Holdover members of the board are George Hahn and Lew Simon. Outgoing president John Romer was unable to be present at the Chamber dinner.

Music for the affair was furnished by the Scotch Lads. President Bobb and his officers plan to redouble their efforts to draw the industrial area into active membership in the Chamber. Rates for industrial members are being adjusted downward. Pickard and China recently joined the Chamber, the first major industry to become a member.

A new addition to the standing committees will be a program committee. "We have an exciting year coming," President Bobb said.

Br-R-R! 16 Below!

The temperature sank to 16 below in Antioch Wednesday morning, the lowest temperature of the winter and the lowest for this year.

Fortunately, Antioch was spared the deep snow that preceded the cold wave in several of the Midwest states. However, a strong wind Monday and Monday night drifted the light snowfall and made it seem much colder than it was.

Zero to 5 below is predicted for Wednesday night as we go to press, and more clear, cold weather tomorrow.

Error In Donations To Rescue Squad

A donation to the Rescue Squad Fund by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Purdy, in memory of Mrs. Al Moore, was mistakenly listed in last week's paper as being "in memory of Al Moore."

Ill Student Wants Mail

Gerald Anderson, a 16-year-old student at Antioch High School, is in the hospital again and would like to hear from some of his school friends.

Gerald has been fighting a blood disease ever since he was born, and is no stranger to hospitals. He doesn't enjoy his sojourns in the hospital any more than the rest of us, and letters from friends do help to pass the time.

Gerald's illness at present is complicated by pneumonia. He had a blood transfusion Monday.

For those who would like to write, the address is Gerald Anderson, Room 1318, Illinois Research Hospital, 608 South Wood, Chicago, Ill. Gerald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Rt. 1, Antioch.

Revoke License Of Driver

Increase Rate, Size Limits of Parcel Post

Use of ZIP Code makes it easier to mail packages after January 15, Postmaster Joseph Wolf of Antioch said today.

New rates and a new system for identifying parcel post zones went into effect on that date as provided in legislation signed into law by President Johnson on September 20, 1966, the Postmaster pointed out.

The rate increases will average about 10 cents a parcel, Joe Wolf said. Starting July 1, the law provides for a series of size and weight increase on packages mailed between first-class offices. Antioch is a 1st class office. The size and weight increase will be in five annual steps, the last coming on July 1, 1971.

Use of ZIP Code in the recipient's address will enable the sender or a mail clerk to quickly determine the proper zone, and thus the rate, for the package. The zones will be based on the distance a parcel travels between the 552 sectional centers in the country, Wolf said.

By consulting a simple chart, which is available at all post offices, the zone can be readily identified because the first three numbers of the ZIP Code represent the sectional center. This replaces a method in which a directory often had to be consulted to locate the proper zone for each of the nation's 33,000 post offices.

The new rates will range from 40 cents for a three-pound parcel destined for local delivery to 60 cents for the same parcel to zone 3 (150 to 300 miles) to $1.05 to zone 8 (over 1,600 miles). The new zoning method will

Mink Fashions To Be Feature of TV Show

An invitation to appear as a regular guest on the weekly Maggie Daly Fashion Show at the Continental Plaza Hotel, Chicago, has been accepted by Harriet Serdar, owner of the salon located at the Imperial Mink Ranch on Wadsworth Rd., Wadsworth.

The Wadsworth salon was featured on the noon-time parade of fashions Tuesday and a segment of the show was filmed for showing on Jim Conway's Morning Show (WBKB - Channel 7) next Tuesday.

Shown Tuesday were mink garments fashioned from pelts raised at the Imperial Mink Ranch, dyed beaver jackets, a sable jacket and sports fur sweater-jackets.

The invitation to appear as a regular guest on the show was extended to Harriet after two earlier appearances.

Card Party At Woman's Club

The January 16 meeting of the Antioch Woman's Club was a pot-luck luncheon and card party. Prizes were awarded to the winning card players.

The hostess committee for the afternoon were the Mesdames Anton Stanich, Jerome Vogler, John Horton, Frank Benes, Morris Pickus, Dorothy Tague, Gus Costoff and Donald Purdy.

Bank Report Reflects Growth of Antioch Area

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Bank of Antioch, held January 11, 1967, a bright picture was painted of the economic development of the Antioch area during the past year. It was reported that total assets of the bank are now $18,352,771.62, an increase of $2,104,400 over the December 31, 1966 figure. Loan activity kept pace with this highly satisfactory growth.

The report to the stockholders by the President, William E. Brook, emphasized the satisfaction with the new location of the bank and the efficiency of the quarters. The 65 car parking lot has been of great assistance to customers and activity at the drive-up windows has been much more than originally anticipated. In the interest of greater speed and efficiency, and in keeping with modern procedures, more accounting techniques of the bank were transferred to a computer with a Chicago correspondent. It is felt that this move provides many benefits not achieved with ordinary on-premises bookkeeping methods.

$60,000 was transferred from the Undivided Profit account of the bank to its Surplus balance during 1966 and the regular dividend was paid to stockholders. Predictions by bank officers and directors at the stockholders meeting look for a continued substantial growth of the bank, based on a strong faith in the future industrial and residential development of our area.

Directors of the bank, elected for 1967 were: William E. Brook, Irving W. Carey, Fred O. Hawkins, Carl D. Hughes, Dr. James W. Kopriva, Ted C. Larson, James W. McMillen, Lloyd E. Murrie and Edmond R. Strang.

ACHS Choir In Choral Festival

The Antioch High School Choir will be among the choirs taking part in a Choral Festival at Lake Forest High School Saturday, Jan. 21. Miss Margaret Hillis, nationally renowned conductor, will direct the Festival.

Participating in the festival will be high school choirs from Antioch, Libertyville, Mundelein and Lake Forest, under the direction of Ralph Brooke, Miss Nancy Anderson, Miss Susan Mitchell and

Mrs. Carol Plack, respectively.

Miss Hillis is the founder and director of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus. She attended the University of Indiana and has studied with Robert Shaw and Julius Herford at the Julliard School of Music. She has held numerous conducting positions, including New York Chamber Soloists, NBC Opera Co., New York City Opera Co. and the Santa Fe Opera. Presently, she divides her time between directing the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus, Kenosha Symphony Orchestra, the American Opera Society and score reading and editing.

Rehearsals for the 180 voice choir will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will continue until 4:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend these rehearsals and also the evening concert which will be presented, free of charge, at 8 p.m. in the Lake Forest High School auditorium.

Miss Hillis will conduct the festival choir in the performance of Mozart's Missa Brevis in F major and the "Hallelujah" from the Mount of Olives by Beethoven. Each individual choir will be performing two numbers in the evening concert.

The festival is sponsored by Lake Forest High School and the Lake Forest Community Music Association. This is the 9th annual festival presented by the CMA, the third clinic and the second year of co-sponsorship by the High School.

Mrs. Plack is general chairman for the event, and George Borich, chairman of the music department at Lake Forest High School, and Dr. Harold Bauer, conductor of the Community Music Association, are serving in an advisory capacity.

"Full Speed Ahead" For Band's Montreal Trip

Plans to send the Antioch Grade School on the trip to the Montreal Exposition next summer received full approval of the Board of Education Tuesday night.

Previously, the board had withheld approval of the proposed pending investigation of insurance coverage for the group by School Attorney Ted Larson.

Tuesday night Larson advised board members that the best and most economical plan would be to raise the amount of coverage of the school's present policy, with the Band Parents organization footing the bill for the difference.

The Band Parents have been working on a fund-raising campaign since shortly after the invitation was extended to the Band. The cost of the trip has not yet been ascertained, but the Band Parents are tentatively working toward a $10,000 goal.

The present insurance policy held by the school covers individuals to $200,000, with a $500,000 limit. Attorney Larson asked that the policy be raised to $500,000 per individual with a $1 million limit for purposes of this trip. He also advised that the Band Parents go ahead with plans for additional accident coverage.

Plans were also made to send each parent of a member of the band a form giving the child permission to make the trip.

The Band Parents have a full schedule of fund-raising events planned. Tuesday night they received permission from the village board to move the Band's Tag Day from their customary July date to Saturday, June 10.

A bake sale will be held at the former Ford garage Saturday, Jan. 21, starting at 9 a.m. Mrs. William Carrick, chairman of the sale, has asked that any Band Parent who will bake for the sale should contact her at 395-1466. Proceeds go to the Toft. Candy will be on sale for those who don't want bakery goods. The candy is also on sale at 1-hour Martinizing.

Monday, Feb. 20, the Band Parents are sponsoring a spaghetti dinner at the Antioch Grade School cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m. After the dinner, a joint meeting of the Oakland and Antioch Grade Schools will be held. We'll simply be chasing them from one street to another," by the Grade School Band.

Off-Street Parking Area Runs Into Snag

Plans for more off-street parking for Antioch's Main St. were approved at Tuesday night's meeting of the village board.

The new public parking lot is the area next to the former Lyons-Ryan Ford Agency. The lot is being leased by the First National Bank and Barnstable's Department Store, in cooperation with some of the other Main St. merchants. The merchants asked the board to lease the lot from them at $1 a year and provide parking, snow removal and lighting. The board approved the proposal.

In the meantime, the board ran into a snag in its efforts to keep the parking area behind the stores on the west side of Main St. open for customers. An ordinance had been prepared for approval by the board limiting use of the parking area by occupants of the buildings bordering it. At present the board said, Main St. merchants and workers are leaving cars there all day, defeating the purpose of the lot.

Charles Cernak appeared before the board and requested seven parking permits for his staff and tenants. The parking is necessary to his business, he said.

Cernak said he had been reluctant to join in the plan as he had sufficient parking area for all occupants of his building. Mayor Toft disagreed with him, and said they might as well scrap the parking area if Cernak insisted on seven parking places.

The mayor suggested that he would meet with tenants of Cernak's building and try to persuade them to use the public parking lot on Broadway. Passage of the ordinance covering the parking area was deferred pending outcome of the talks.

Mayor Ray Toft announced that a public hearing would be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 22, by the Board of Local Improvements on the Hennings Court Sewer & Water facilities. A hearing was also scheduled for Feb. 28 on extension of the Anita St. storm sewer from Anita St. to Depot. Property owners affected will be notified.

An ordinance was approved naming a 60 foot road from Poplar Ave. to Turner Drive after the former mayor, Murrill Cunningham. The street will be named Cunningham Drive.

The board voted to purchase the three new lights on Main St. which were installed by Antioch Electric on a trial basis. The board also voted to purchase eleven more of the lights for the business area, and to advertise for bids on the eleven lights. The bids will be opened Feb. 21.

The new lights are called Lucalox, a multi-vapor lamp. Advantages cited are that they give more light, are more economical to operate, and have less fading as they near the stage where they must be replaced.

The lights are being installed in some eastern states, but Antioch is giving them their first trial in the Midwest. Superintendent of Public Works Edgar Sorenson said he had arranged for them while seeking better lighting for Main St. Consulting Gordon Volting of Antioch Electric in a search for better lighting, a salesman had recommended the Lucalox lamps and arranged for the demonstration installation of the three lights.

Three months will be required for delivery of the lamps, as manufacturing is not keeping pace with demands at this time. A letter from Mundelein officials asked if Antioch would be interested in renting equipment from that village for cleaning catch basins. Mundelein, the letter said, is contemplating purchase of a machine to clean the basins because of rising prices of contractors for such work. Their decision, they said, would be influenced by interest of surrounding villages in renting the machinery on an hourly basis. The matter was turned over to Simonsen for study.

Mayor Ray Toft announced that a second meeting of a group interested in starting a Community Chest for Northwest Lake County communities. The meeting will be held Jan. 31 at the Grayslake Savings & Loan.

Enthusiasm for the project was high at the first meeting of groups from various communities, Toft said, and Antioch was well represented.

The board approved the purchase of a key-filing cabinet for the Police station at a cost of $102. The police have keys to most business establishments in town and need a cabinet for storage.

The board refused to consider an ordinance proposed by the police committee to establish a No Parking zone on Hillside near the cemetery. The ordinance was aimed at parking of ice fishermen. Mayor Toft said the ordinance would not cure the problem, but only shift the parking to other areas. "It's a problem, but that's a private lake and I don't know what we can do about it," Toft said. "This ordinance would create a problem in the cemetery area during the funerals, and simply shift the parking to other streets. We'll simply be chasing them from one street to another," by the Grade School Band.

AGS To Ask For Tax Hike

Antioch Grade School teachers will get a raise this year, and the school will ask for a raise in the educational tax rate.

The two actions are not cause and effect, superintendent Richard Whitacre pointed out. Antioch Grade School will be $40,000 in the red by May of this year, Whitacre said, with the present salary schedule in effect.

The school has been in financial difficulties several times, Whitacre said, but has always been saved by the construction of a new industry, apartment house or some other fortuitous addition which raised the assessed valuations and brought more income to the school.

Assessed valuation has now leveled off, Whitacre said, and the school can not hope to be rescued by this route.

"Perhaps we should have asked for the tax raise soon."

Ladies Night!

That social event of the year, Lions Club Ladies Night, will be held at Lorenz' on Feb. 18. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 8 p.m.

A full evening of entertainment will be provided, according to the committee in charge of the affair. In addition, the committee feels it has been fortunate in securing the services of Jim Carlson as M.C. of the program.

"Don't miss this evening of hypnotizing entertainment," advises Dick Miller, a member of the committee. Miller refused to divulge any further details of the program.

When you breathe in polluted air repeatedly for years on end, your lungs and other parts of your body may be damaged. If the damage is bad enough, you may find it hard to breathe properly.

er," Whitacre said. "The educational tax rate has been 90c since 1945. There have been three building referendums in the intervening years, and the student population has risen from about 200 to 1,120. We will have to have a raise in the educational tax rate simply to maintain the present program. We have tried to improve the school's program consistently and to keep abreast of the times. And of course, salaries have gone up."

The school board has set Saturday, Feb. 25, as the date for the referendum. They will be asking that the educational tax rate be raised 21c from the present 90c to $1.11.

Should the raise in the educational tax be approved, Whitacre pointed out, the additional money would not be received by the school until 1969. In the meantime, interest on anticipation warrants will be costing the taxpayers additional money.

The board of education approved the recommendation of the salary committee, after a preliminary meeting on January 3 and considerable discussion. Starting salary for a teacher with a B.A. degree was set at $5,600, with a 4% index. In essence, this constitutes a raise of 4 per cent of the starting salary each year until the top salary is reached.

The school previously had a starting salary of $5,450, with a 3 per cent index and at 3½ the ninth year. The present schedule will provide raises for all the teachers, Whitacre said, and will help the school to compete for teachers. The schedule provides a top salary of $10,168 for a Master's degree.

In other business, the board accepted the resignation of school board member Peter Poulos, who has left the area, and appointed Les Sorenson to fill the vacant seat until the April election.

The Antioch News Is
"OUR PAPER"

by Charles B. Watson

The past eighteen years of my life have been spent in a community adjacent to the Village of Antioch; the past two years, in Antioch proper; a delightful and satisfying place to dwell.

During that period of time and according to habit, I have made many observations and it came to me quite forcibly that a community the size of Antioch without a home paper would be like a ship without a rudder.

A community may be blest by, or disappointed in a home paper that poses as its medium of popular news presentation or expression.

The Antioch News for the past eighty years has been the medium covering Antioch and adjacent territory and for many years has been the source of such information that has won my admiration for and loyalty to our village.

No matter how sincere or impartial the attitude assumed by the Antioch News may have been, and still is, it is always subject to criticism that is unhesitatingly dishd up by some of its readers.

The consoling thought, however, regarding this particular common habit is "that it is far easier to be critical than it is to be correct."

Being a constant reader of Our Paper, I am conscious of many of its problems that are faced every week, and I am constrained to express myself in its behalf.

A natural and normal development is taking place in Our Paper and it is so noticeable that I am sure the reading public will be pleased and well served, and merit public cooperation. The merchants of our village are not being harassed by out-of-town advertisers for Our Paper makes no attempt to solicit out-of-town merchants.

The features and thoughts expressed lead us to one very definite conclusion and that is that the Antioch News has been and still is, "OUR PAPER," unvarnished by any personal desire to pay any unearned credit to the deserving publishers.

We, as citizens of Antioch, are extended an open invitation to participate in adding general public interest to Our Paper by submitting articles of general reader interest at any time.

Let this idea sink in and create action.

A Pat On The Back

A pat on the back is in order for the Antioch Post Office and Postmaster Joe Wolf for the efficiency with which the Christmas mail was handled.

The Antioch Post Office had its biggest load in all time, and this was the first Christmas rush for the Postmaster. After reading about the dismal failure of the Chicago Post Office to cope with the mail we were becoming slightly apprehensive about mailing Christmas packages.

We're sure everyone at the Post Office is glad Christmas is over, and that it will be another year before the big deluge comes again. However, they remained cheerful during those trying days, in addition to getting all the mail out on time. Congratulations, Postmaster and all your staff, on a job well and cheerfully done.

Lurlean Wallace was sworn in as Alabama's first Governor Monday, but there is little doubt that husband George will continue to wear the gubernatorial pants in the Executive Mansion.

It could suggest a possible solution for Sheriff Harold Scheskie who is having trouble settling on a Chief Deputy.

Why not appoint Mrs. Scheskie to the post and then four years from now she could become the candidate for Sheriff with her husband's backing? Sheriff Scheskie could stay on as Chief deputy thus keeping the office in the family for a succession of terms. And speaking of Chief Deputy, it is surprising that nobody has advanced the name of John Babcock, of Cuba Township, as a candidate for Chief Deputy Sheriff or Chief Deputy Treasurer.

It is almost automatic for Babcock to be listed as a contender for any good county post available even though the amiable Cuba precinct committeeman seldom if ever seeks the job on his own.

One Way Ticket

ness starts in Dec. 1967 and runs through most of 1968.

Former County Board Chairman Kenneth Henke, of Benton Township, is chairman of the Lake County committee and is reportedly open for suggestions regarding special events to be held in the area to help attract visitors to the area during the year long celebration.

This celebration should be the signal for resort operators in the Chain O' Lakes area in particular, but other sections as well, to plan some re-decorating and refurbishing.

Several million visitors are expected in Illinois during the year-long festivities and Lake County should attract its share because of the many attractions here, but the opportunity can be blown if some provision is not made to entertain and accommodate the visitors.

Plans should be made for a full year of activities built around the incomparable Chain O' Lakes, but the activities will be meaningless if the facilities available for visitors are second-rate.

One of the best kept of all political secrets is the time, date, and place for meetings of the non-partisan organizations which enter slates of candidates in township races.

These closed corporations are as secretive as fraternal lodges when it comes to letting the electorate in on their organization secrets and this secrecy helps explain why there is so little interest in the township elections which in turn make it possible for these semi-secret groups to retain control in their townships' elections, after election.

In the larger townships which have assistant supervisors to be elected there are spasmodic attempts by "outsiders" to find out who is to be slated for office with the misguided notion they might want to take a hand in the slating.

This effrontery is usually met with vague guesses at the caucus date, evasion, or outright misinformation.

After a while township officials apparently come to regard the township government as their own private realm with the voters of the township given the right to cast a vote for the hand-picked favorites of the township organization.

This could be a substantial argument in favor of having each township elect its officials on national party tickets so that at least the precinct committeemen and the party officials will have some knowledge of who the candidates will be prior to the final date for filing nominating petitions.

ness will be folding up soon, and there are also rumors of a rocky romance in the air.

Till next time,

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClellan

Expert prognostication of the press, radio, and television are forecasting the Great Issues of the 90th Congress. These experts predict that Vietnam, taxes and a second look at Great Society programs will highlight the new session.

With 47 additional Republicans (for a total of 188) and 248 Democrats, complete one-party control of the United States House of Representatives has ended abruptly. Administration leaders may consider that this relieves them of some of their responsibility to originate and enact landmark legislation. The closer balance between the parties should, indeed, encourage the entire Congress, as the legislative branch of government, to develop its own programs. Also, it is to be hoped that the Republican policy of proposing "constructive alternatives" will be continued.

Although all of the 535 Members of the House and Senate have opportunities to debate—and to vote—upon the Great Issues, the principal decisions will be preceded by action of the Members of the respective Committees before whom the issues will be pending.

The full House membership of 435 will not have a chance at any of the major congressional proposals until after Committee chairmen have authorized hearings and the relatively few members of key committees have debated secretly—and have made their decisions.

Questions involving the war in Vietnam will be debated—and decided—initially by Members of the House Armed Services and Appropriations Committees. (These 88 Members comprise about one-fifth of the total House Membership of 435.) The 25-member House Ways and Means Committee will consider possible new tax proposals. (Less than 6% of the overall House membership.) Revision or repeal of the "Great Society" enactments may be decided by the 31 Congressmen who serve on the House Education and Labor Committee.

Proposals to amend the United States Constitution (such as the School Prayer Amendment, etc.) as well as measures affecting our federal civil rights laws, criminal laws, (and many others) will come before the House Judiciary Committee upon which this Member serves.

Except in the case of the Ways and Means Committee (which acts only as a full committee), small subcommittees comprised of from 5 to 11 members will be the real keys to the legislative problems of the 90th Congress. Of course, throughout the session the chairmen of the 20 House Standing Committees will decide what measures shall be given priority, and then authorize the hearings which must precede committee action.

With the exception of appropriation bills, the 15-member House Rules Committee generally determines the rules under which measures (which have received Committee approval) are to be debated by the House. Where the Rules Committee fails to act within a period of 21 days, the Speaker may nevertheless schedule a measure for House debate at the request of a committee chairman. This is the so-called 21-day rule. Prior to adoption of this rule at the last session, a majority (8 members) of the Rules Committee could bottle up any and all measures, notwithstanding the desires of a majority

As It Happens!

Oaths to Office Holders

With but little fanfare the new State Treasurer, Adlai Stevenson III, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Ray Page, were sworn into office before a Joint Session of the Legislature on Monday.

It Does Make a Difference

When Ray Page took his oath of office, he took it in front of the largest Republican Majority in Joint Session since the Civil War Days. The boys really "whooped it up" for their Republican Office Holder. The ovation went on for ten minutes as compared to a three or four seconds of applause for the Democrat State Treasurer. It was a new experience for the Republicans to be sitting in heavy majority and really proved how sweet the taste of victory can be.

His Politics was Showing

Rep. Dan Pierce (D-Ill.) became quite political when the Republican Majority in the House introduced a Resolution to investigate the scandal-ridden Chicago Sanitary District.

He attempted to amend the resolution to include the North Shore Sanitary District and charged that it was run by the Members of the House. Thus, it should be clear that the results of the 90th Congress, which convened on January 10th, will be controlled by a relatively few of the 435 Members of the House.

With the Senate's extraordinary privilege of unlimited debate (filibuster) and the increased control of Senate committee chairmen over the affairs of their committees, an even smaller group can dominate the direction of legislation in the United States Senate.

However, regardless of the apparent influence of powerful committee chairmen and party leaders, every individual Member of the new Congress will help mold—and perhaps even decide—the legislative proposals affecting Vietnam, taxes, and the Great Society. For, in the last analysis, votes cast on the Floor of the Senate and the House of Representatives will determine the final fate of these Great Issues of 1967.

by Republican Political "Hacks" or former committeemen. He was taken to task on this statement by Rep. W. J. Murphy (R-Antioch) as quite the opposite is true because the North Shore Sanitary District Trustees are appointed by our Judges, and there is no Judicial District in the entire United States that has finer Judges than Lake County. Their appointments to the Sanitary District down through the years have been outstanding civic minded men whose names served like a Who's Who of Lake County; and this District has always operated in a scandal-free, efficient and honorable manner. Rep. Pierce's amendment was defeated.

Controversial Legislation

The General Assembly is off and running with a deluge of projected new legislation, some of it that will be quite controversial such as a Resolution calling for a Constitutional Convention and for annual Sessions. While good arguments can be made for both of these Resolutions, this writer wonders if we should so readily leap with both feet into the "JetAge." A Constitutional Convention would be for the purpose of giving the people of the State an entirely new Constitution all in one grand sweep which would cover everything from new taxes to office holders, etc. The people of the State in the General Election last fall rejected two of the three amendments on the ballot, and this is a demonstration that overall our people are not demanding or indeed ready for such a radical change. I dislike discarding the known old ways for a bunch of brand new untried ways. Change just for change sake is not good. The Annual Sessions would bring on a deluge of new laws every year instead of every other year as we now have it. I believe our problem now is too many laws, and annual Sessions will only add to the problem.

Pleasant Possibility

It has been encouraging to read that the new Senator Karl Berning is not blindly accepting his Republican Leader's (Senator Russell Arrington) mass of reform legislation carte blanche. Karl is already demonstrating he has a mind of his own by his outspoken criticism on the Credit Reform Bills and the Legislature interfering with the re-apportioning of our County Boards. Keep it up, Karl—Senator Arrington and some of your fellow Republicans won't like it—but the people you represent will.

Congratulations

Rep. John Conolly (R-Gurnee) has just been appointed as Chairman of the Public Utilities Committee in the House by the new Leadership. Congratulations, John, that is quite an achievement for a third term.

Well, we will see what happens now and report to you from Springfield—As It Happens!

Music Center Schedules Activities For Month

Recitals, a concert, movies and second semester registration are some of the activities that will take place in the next few weeks at the Music Center of Lake County, Bowen Park, Waukegan.

In addition, auditions are being held for youngsters who want to join the Lake County Youth String Orchestra.

One previously announced event, the January 29 Sunday afternoon Musicale with George Swigart, violin, his sister, Miss Estelle Swigart, cello, and George Banham, piano, has been rescheduled for some time this spring due to the busy schedule of the center at the present time.

Registration for 2nd semester will be held January 26, 27 and 28 for classes in all musical orchestra instruments including piano, voice and guitar; also taught by the finest teachers available in the Chicago-Milwaukee area, dance, drama, folk singing, art, music theory and literature and other subjects for adults and children as young as four years of age. Lesson charges are based on the ability to pay.

A student recital will be held at 4:15 p.m. Saturday in Lilac Cottage, the school's headquarters in Bowen Park.

Two Lake County institutions, the Music Center and the Waukegan Public Library will combine with a business, John Charles Music Co., to enhance the community's cultural life by bringing top artists here on Friday, January 27 for a free concert starting at 8:15 p.m.

The library will provide the facilities for the concert, John Charles will provide the piano and the cultural center will bring the artists.

Performing will be Banham, a faculty member of the Music Center, head of the piano department at the Music Center of the North Shore, a recording, concert and television soloist who also has concertized in this country and in Europe.

On the same program, a reading will be given by the London-trained drama teacher of the center, Mrs. Derek Sparks who also is head of the school's drama department.

Special guest artist for the evening will be Stephen J. Evans, concert saxophonist. He is a teacher in North Chicago and only this past summer toured Asia where he performed in 11 countries under the auspices of the state department.

Six educational and entertaining films designed to broaden the horizons of children four through twelve years of age will be shown at 10:30 a.m., 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. January 28 in the Little Theatre of the West Campus of Waukegan Township High School.

Propose New Laws On Driver Test

Secretary of State Paul Powell has submitted a proposal to the General Assembly requiring all motor vehicle operators to be re-examined every 10 years upon applying for renewal of their licenses.

The measure also calls for issuance of licenses valid for five years at a fee of $10, with $7 of the fee to be deposited in the Driver Education Fund and the remaining $3 in the Road Fund. Mr. Powell said. Present licenses are valid for three years at a fee of $3.

The measure has a two-fold purpose, Secretary Powell said. First is to raise desperately needed funds for the High School Driver Education Program in order that this highly successful program may be continued.

The second purpose is to place Illinois in compliance with the Federal Highway Safety Act to protect the state's federal funds for highway purposes.

The measure may have to be amended, Mr. Powell pointed out, because at present the federal government has not announced its requirements concerning periodic re-examination of drivers.

Re-examination every 10 years is proposed in the measure because studies conducted by members of its staff indicate that the costs of examination at three-year intervals would be substantially higher, Mr. Powell said. Sponsors of the measure are Representatives Allen T. Lucas of Springfield, Clyde Choate of Anna, John P. Touhy of Chicago and John W. Lewis, Jr., of Marshall.

Happ To Head Heart Fund Campaign

Jerome P. Happ, Vice President of the North Shore Gas Company, has been named to head the industrial division of the 1967 Lake County Heart Fund Campaign, it was announced by Elmer Vliet, general chairman.

Happ, who resides at 556 Dublin Drive, Loch Lomond, Mundelein, is a past president of the Waukegan-North Chicago Chamber of Commerce and of the North Miami Exchange Club. He has also served on the public relations committee of four previous Lake County Heart Fund Campaigns. Happ and his wife, Betty, have eight children: three boys and five girls.

Powell Proposes Break For Servicemen

Illinois residents who are members of the nation's armed services on active duty would be permitted to register one passenger car at a fee of $1 under the provisions of a measure submitted to the General Assembly by Secretary of State Paul Powell.

The measure would extend to those members of the armed services the same privileges presently provided for members of the Illinois National Guard and Naval Militia, Mr. Powell pointed out.

Sponsors of the measure are Representatives Allen T. Lucas of Springfield, Clyde Choate of Anna, John P. Touhy of Chicago and John W. Lewis, Jr., of Marshall.

Supports Refusal To Seat Powell

In support of the resolution to investigate the qualifications of Congressman-elect Adam Clayton Powell, Congressman Robert McClory (R. Lake Bluff) stated: "The House of Representatives acted wisely and fairly. The action taken will permit Mr. Powell a full hearing and an opportunity to answer the numerous charges that have been directed against him.

I have full confidence that the select committee which will hear the evidence for and against him will be fair and impartial. "It is my further hope that this action is the start of a program to demand high

Leukemia Fund Drive In March

The Leukemia Society, Inc. Greater Chicago Chapter will conduct its Annual Educational Campaign drive for funds in Chicago and the Metropolitan area during March 1967 — LEUKEMIA MONTH.

Volunteers are urgently needed as contacts in their communities to raise funds to conquer this dread disease which is fatal in children and adults.

Mother Nature dangled a bit of Spring temptingly before us last week, then promptly slapped us down with dropping mercury, high winds and some snow. Monday looked like the kind of day described in the first verse of "Snowbound". And if you don't remember that, dearie, you're much younger than I.

For all our griping, I guess we'd miss winter. Certainly the skiers and ice fishermen would. By the way, one of the lovely sights of winter is the lights of the Wilmot Ski Hills glowing through a snowfall, or even on a bright, cold night.

Raising money to contribute to worthy causes is good works, of course, but I must say I have real admiration for a bunch of college kids who contribute "elbow grease" instead.

Sizzling Sequoits Set School Scoring Record

The high-flying Sequoits, working like a well-oiled machine last Friday night, poured in 102 points against the Round Lake five to win their sixth straight conference game and set a new scoring record for the Antioch gym. In addition, Steve Miklautsch tied a school record of 12 assists in one game. Richard Behrens had set this record in the 1957-58 season against McHenry and Grant.

The Sequoits could do no wrong Friday night, with every regular hitting the hoop with unerring accuracy. When Coach Roger Andrews pulled out the regulars in the last quarter, the reserves kept up the scoring to go over the century mark.

Tyrone Walls lead the scoring for the Antioch quintet with 31 points, with the other four regulars also scoring in double figures. Thirteen Antioch players scored during the game.

A fired-up crowd of Antioch fans started a chant of "We want 100" as the score crept into the nineties for the Sequoits. With the regulars out, Al Alexander scored the 100th point from the free throw line. Tony Barnett finished the scoring for the Sequoits with two free throws with nine seconds left in the game.

In one of their finest games of the season, the Sequoits raced to a 28-5 lead in the first quarter. The score stood 49-25 at half time and 71-41 at the end of the third quarter.

Antioch hit 51% of its field goals and 54% from the free throw line. In the rebounding department, Antioch had 48 and Round Lake 36. Bruce Empfield led with 17 rebounds. Walls had 13 and Don Zeman 7 to lead the Sequoits. McCarty and Prorok lead Round Lake with 10 and 9 respectively. In the scoring department, Gary Bell was the whole show for Round Lake, scoring 38 points.

Antioch Sophs Upset Undefeated Wauconda

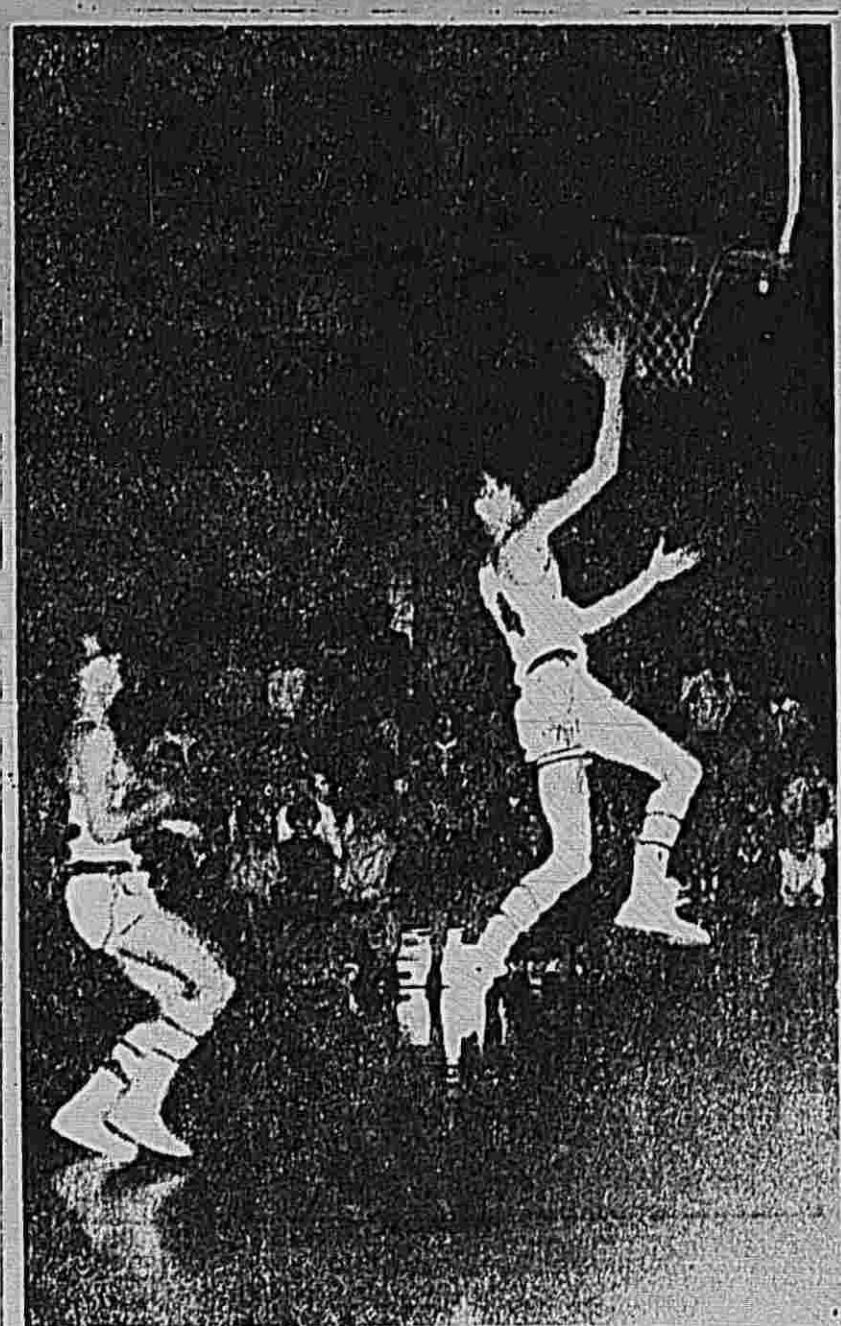

After losing to the Round Lake squad Friday night, the Antioch Soph basketball team scored an upset over the undefeated Wauconda sophs Saturday night, winning 52-49 in overtime.

Steve Owens, Antioch's highest scorer on the Soph team, is still out of action with a hairline fracture of the jaw suffered in the Zion-Benton game. Round Lake and Antioch played even during the first half Friday night, with the score at half-time Round Lake 37, Antioch 35. At the end of the third quarter Round Lake lead 57 to 44. Round Lake went on to a 62-54 victory.

SATURDAY
Antioch 52, Wauconda 49
Saturday night's game was a hard-fought one, with neither team able to build up a real lead. Antioch led 14 to 12 at the end of the first quarter. Wauconda 28 to 26 at the half, and Antioch regained the lead 34 to 31 at the end of three quarters.

Wauconda took over the lead early in the fourth quarter, and was leading by 4 points with a minute and a half to play. In the overtime period, Antioch scored four points, all on free throws, while holding Wauconda to a single point. Drivers To Discuss New Racing Rules At Meeting

Lake County Racing, Inc. will hold its annual owners' and drivers' meeting Friday night, January 20, at the Norshore Resort near Antioch. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and there will be free refreshments afterwards. The Norshore Resort is located one mile west of Route 83 on North Avenue in Antioch.

The prime topic of discussion will be the all-new rule book that will govern the stock car racing at the Waukegan Speedway in 1967. This new book contains the rules for the late model and the modified stock car divisions plus the regulations for the recently announced HOBBY STOCK class. Hobby Stock racing will be featuring throughout the season along with the late model and modified racing.

April 15th has been announced as the opening date of the Waukegan Speedway for 1967 with both modified and late model stock car racing scheduled for that night. Saturday night racing will continue through April, with Sunday nights being added to the schedule in May. Wednesday night late model and hobby stock competition will start in June and continue through August.

Recent rumors and announcements from other area speedways should help improve the racing at the Waukegan Speedway in 1967. The management has made great strides towards making the racing at Waukegan among the best of its kind in the nation. Forthcoming rule changes and policy changes at other tracks are expected to give 1967 even a greater boost as more cars will become competitive and many more top drivers, most from outlying areas from Waukegan, will join in the racing at Waukegan.

All previous Lake County Racing, Inc. members are welcome to the meeting and also invited are those seriously considering building, owning or driving a stock car at Waukegan this season. Pre-season registrations will be made available at the meeting and rule books will be immediately distributed among the members.

Grayslake Girl Named "Miss Heart"

Thirteen-year-old Linda DeZurik of Grayslake in Lake County has been named "Miss Heart" for the 1967 Heart Fund in the Chicago-land area.

Linda, who enjoys all sports, is again able to participate in her favorite athletic activities after undergoing successful heart surgery. A large atrial septal defect was repaired at Children's Memorial Hospital in June, 1966.

Teenage Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland DeZurik, 257 McMillan St., Grayslake, is an eighth-grade student at Grayslake Lakeview School where she is an outstanding player on the Girls' Softball team. Growing up in a family with two older brothers, now aged 24 and 20, Linda came by her athletic interest and ability quite naturally.

The Chicago Heart Association since 1954 has allocated over $5 million for research and several million more for education. Linda is among those who have benefited and can again look forward to a full and active life.

Propose New Laws On Driver Test

Secretary of State Paul Powell has submitted a proposal to the General Assembly requiring all motor vehicle operators to be re-examined every 10 years upon applying for renewal of their licenses.

The measure also calls for issuance of licenses valid for five years at a fee of $10, with $7 of the fee to be deposited in the Driver Education Fund and the remaining $3 in the Road Fund. Mr. Powell said. Present licenses are valid for three years at a fee of $3.

The measure has a two-fold purpose, Secretary Powell said. First is to raise desperately needed funds for the High School Driver Education Program in order that this highly successful program may be continued.

The second purpose is to place Illinois in compliance with the Federal Highway Safety Act to protect the state's federal funds for highway purposes.

The measure may have to be amended, Mr. Powell pointed out, because at present the federal government has not announced its requirements concerning periodic re-examination of drivers.

Re-examination every 10 years is proposed in the measure because studies conducted by members of his staff indicate that the costs of examination at three-year intervals would be substantially higher, Mr. Powell said.

Happ To Head Heart Fund Campaign

Jerome P. Happ, Vice President of the North Shore Gas Company, has been named to head the industrial division of the 1967 Lake County Heart Fund Campaign. It was announced by Elmer Vilel, general chairman.

Happ, who resides at 556 Dublin Drive, Loch Lomond, Mundelein, is a past president of the Waukegan-North Chicago Chamber of Commerce and of the North Miami Exchange Club. He has also served on the public relations committee of four previous Lake County Heart Fund campaigns. Happ and his wife, Betty, have eight children: three boys and five girls.

Powell Proposes Break For Servicemen

Illinois residents who are members of the nation's armed services on active duty would be permitted to register one passenger car at a fee of $1 under the provisions of a measure submitted to the General Assembly by Secretary of State Paul Powell.

The measure would extend to those members of the armed services the same privileges presently provided for members of the Illinois National Guard and Naval Militia, Mr. Powell pointed out.

Sponsors of the measure are Representatives Allen T. Lucas of Springfield, Clyde Choate of Anna, John P. Touhy of Chicago and John W. Lewis, Jr., of Marshall.

Supports Refusal To Seat Powell

In support of the resolution to investigate the qualifications of Congressman-elect Adam Clayton Powell, Congressman Robert McClory (R, Lake Bluff) stated:

"The House of Representatives acted wisely—and fairly. The action taken will permit Mr. Powell a full hearing and an opportunity to answer the numerous charges that have been directed against him."

I have full confidence that the select committee which will hear the evidence for and against him will be fair and impartial. "It is my further hope that this action is the start of a program to demand high

Mother Nature dangled a bit of Spring temptingly before us last week, then promptly slapped us down with dropping mercury, high winds and some snow. Monday looked like the kind of day described in the first verse of "Snowbound". And if you don't remember that, dearie, you're much younger than I.

For all our griping, I guess we'd miss winter. Certainly the skiers and ice fishermen would. By the way, one of the lovely sights of winter is the lights of the Wilmot Ski Hills glowing through a snowfall, or even on a bright, cold night.

The high-flying Sequoits, working like a well-oiled machine last Friday night, poured in 102 points against the Round Lake five to win their sixth straight conference game and set a new scoring record for the Antioch gym. In addition, Steve Miklautsch tied a school record of 12 assists in one game. Richard Behrens had set this record in the 1957-58 season against McHenry and Grant.

The Sequoits could do no wrong Friday night, with every regular hitting the hoop with unerring accuracy. When Coach Roger Andrews pulled out the regulars in the last quarter, the reserves kept up the scoring to go over the century mark.

Tyrone Walls lead the scoring for the Antioch quintet with 31 points, with the other four regulars also scoring in double figures. Thirteen Antioch players scored during the game.

A fired-up crowd of Antioch fans started a chant of "We want 100" as the score crept into the nineties for the Sequoits. With the regulars out, Al Alexander scored the 100th point from the free throw line. Tony Barnett finished the scoring for the Sequoits with two free throws with nine seconds left in the game.

In one of their finest games of the season, the Sequoits raced to a 26-5 lead in the first quarter. The score stood 49-25 at half time and 71-41 at the end of the third quarter.

Antioch hit 51% of its field goals and 54% from the free throw line. In the rebounding department, Antioch had 48 and Round Lake 36. Bruce Empfield led with 17 rebounds. Walls had 13 and Don Zeman 7 to lead the Sequoits. McCarty and Prorok lead Round Lake with 10 and 9 respectively. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and there will be free refreshments afterwards. The Norshore Resort is located one mile west of Route 83 on North Avenue in Antioch.

The prime topic of discussion will be the all-new rule book that will govern the stock car racing at the Waukegan Speedway in 1967. This new book contains the rules for the late model and the modified stock car divisions plus the regulations for the recently announced HOBBY STOCK class. Hobby Stock racing will be featuring throughout the season along with the late model and modified racing.

Saturday night racing will continue through April, with Sunday nights being added to the schedule in May. The management has made great strides towards making the racing at Waukegan among the best of its kind in the nation. Forthcoming rule changes and policy changes at other tracks are expected to give 1967 even a greater boost as more cars will become competitive and many more top drivers, most from outlying areas from Waukegan, will join in the racing at Waukegan.

All previous Lake County Racing, Inc. members are welcome to the meeting and also invited are those seriously considering building, owning or driving a stock car at Waukegan this season. Pre-season registrations will be made available at the meeting and rule books will be immediately distributed among the members.

High-scoring Bobby Hull of the Chicago Black Hawks has been named "Top Performer in Hockey" for 1966 in SPORT Magazine's 20th annual selections honoring the top performer in every major sport. Hull also received the award in 1965.

During the 1965-'66 season, Hull scored a record 54 goals and totaled a record 97 points, earning the National Hockey League's Most Valuable Player award and justifying his selection as Sport Magazine's "Top Performer in Hockey."

Also among the awards announced by Sport Magazine were "Man of the Year" and "Top Performer in Baseball" honors to Frank Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles.

Say the editors of Sport Magazine in explaining their choice:

"Frank Robinson did it all. He led the league in batting; 316; he led the league in home runs; 49; he led the league in runs-batted-in; 122. He became the first player to win the Most Valuable Player award in both leagues. And he continued his onslaught in the World Series, starting the rout of the Dodgers with a first-game, first-

Coast Guard No Longer Treasury Agency

By H. R. Kaplan

Christmas, 1966, was the last to be observed by the United States Coast Guard as an agency of the Treasury Department. Admiral William J. Smith, Coast Guard Commandant, revealed in making his annual review of Service accomplishments for the past year. Transfer of the Coast Guard to the newly created Department of Transportation, scheduled within the next few months, will bring down the curtain on a colorful and exciting era of Coast Guard history, reaching back to 1790. It will also mark the beginning of a new chapter for this historic Service which serves as an Armed Force and as our principal agency for maritime safety and marine law enforcement.

From Newburyport to Vietnam. The little revenue fleet sponsored in 1790 by Alexander Hamilton, First Secretary of the Treasury, to put down smuggling has come a long way. Its development into the world's most effective maritime safety service parallels to a large extent the rise of the United States from a struggling Republic to the world's mightiest democracy.

Only a few years after the first revenue cutter Massachusetts was launched at Newburyport, Mass., the first cutters went into action in 1799 to protect American merchant ships from harassment by Napoleon's navy.

In the more than a century and three quarters which have elapsed, the Coast Guard has participated in every major war in which the United States has fought. It's a long list, including suppression of piracy in the Gulf of Mexico, the War of 1812, the Seminole War in Florida, the Mexican War, Civil War, World Wars I and II and now Viet Nam.

The newest chapter of the Coast Guard's military history is now unfolding half way across the world in the coastal waters of Viet Nam. Since July, 1965, the twenty-six 82-foot cutters of Coast Guard Squadron One, have been patrolling the coast of the Republic of South Viet Nam to intercept the movement of men and materials from North Viet Nam to enemy forces in the south. The Coast Guard has given gunfire support to U. S. and allied forces ashore, and has directly engaged and sunk enemy vessels. The Squadron also operates a system of electronic navigational aids, supervises the loading of explosives and other dangerous cargoes and serves in an advisory capacity in matters affecting port security, the merchant marine, aid to navigation and coastal surveillance.

The Humane War for Safety at Sea. The Coast Guard is an armed Force but its primary peacetime mission is humanitarian—the protection of life and property at sea. It has been doing this since the early 1830's when the Revenue Cutters were directed to conduct winter cruises to aid distressed vessels. Its work has mounted steadily. Last year, the Coast Guard answered 43,466 calls for assistance, involving more than 3.6 billion dollars in property and cargo, or nearly seven times the Coast Guard's budget for the entire year. It also saved more than 3,400 lives during the same period.

Greatly facilitating the Coast Guard's search and rescue work is its Automated Merchant Vessel Reporting program (AMVER). At AMVER headquarters in New York City, vessels of all nationalities report their positions periodically to the Coast Guard. A high-speed electronic computer processes the information which is made immediately available to Rescue Coordination Centers. Thousands of foreign and U. S. vessels are voluntarily taking part in the rapidly growing program. AMVER has been expanded to the Pacific Ocean area, and some consideration is being given to using it as the nucleus for a global search and rescue network.

Equally as important as search and rescue is the Coast Guard's accident prevention function. This is designed to prevent disasters at sea from happening. While headlines, the program is not often made the headlines, the program is responsible for making the world's safest. Presently it involves about one-fifth of the Coast Guard's officer personnel. One of its most important features is an intensive inspection program extending from a vessel's blueprint through its operating life. In 1966, the Coast Guard inspected 4,734 U. S. vessels with a total tonnage of 11,519,942 tons, and carried out inspections of 1,544 foreign vessels with a combined tonnage of 14,087,164 tons. The Coast Guard also sets the standards of competence for officers and crews of U. S. Merchant ships and represents the United States in its official maritime contacts with foreign powers.

The Coast Guard's concern for marine safety is not limited to large vessels but extends also to small pleasure craft. Since many of the operators and owners are frequently inexperienced, the Coast Guard seeks to make recreational boating safer through a program of safety education and law enforcement. Assisting the Coast Guard is the Coast Guard Auxiliary, a non-military, volunteer organization which is active throughout the United States in spreading the message of boating safety. Last year, the Auxiliary's 23,232 members provided boating safety courses for more than 150,000 persons, made courtesy examinations of 176,259 motor boats, patrolled 4,401 regattas and saved 129 lives.

A Century of Coast Guard Oceanography. In 1967, the Coast Guard will mark a century of achievement in the ocean sciences. Its first oceanographic mission took place in 1867 when the Revenue Cutter Lincoln was directed to make the first exploration of the waters of the Alaskan Territory shortly after its purchase by the United States from the Imperial Russian Government. Since then the Coast Guard has contributed significantly to our knowledge of northern waters. Its Alaskan Patrol, ocean station vessels in the Atlantic and Pacific, and the Coast Guard official oceanographic status, it has steadily broadened the scope of its oceanography program.

In recent years the Coast Guard cutter Northwind has carried out investigations of the little known Kara and Barents Seas north of the Soviet Union. The Coast Guard's larger vessels are being equipped with the most modern instruments to permit more effective study of the oceans. The new 378-foot cutter Hamilton, to be commissioned early in 1967, will have fully equipped wet and dry oceanographic laboratories, as well as a computer.

Information obtained by the Coast Guard is made available to oceanographic centers around the world. Within the past year, a Marine Sciences Division has been established at Coast Guard Headquarters with full jurisdiction over the agency's far-flung effort.

Reshaping the Service. The progressive spirit of today's Coast Guard is especially apparent in its program to modernize the entire establishment by the middle 1970's. It has already made substantial progress towards replacing over-age vessels with cutters of the most modern design. Five new 210-foot cutters have entered the fleet within the past few years and more are expected to follow. They have added greater scope and efficiency to the Coast Guard's operations.

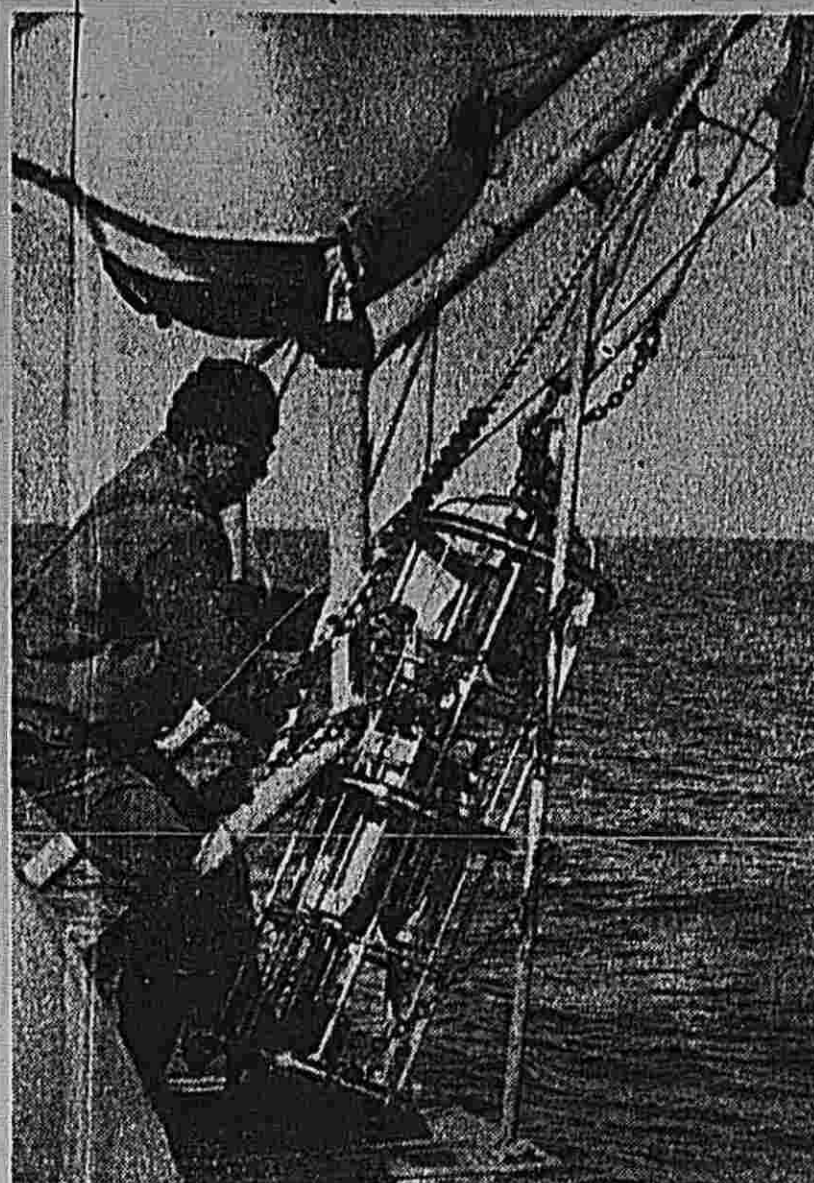

With the transfer of the Navy icebreaker Burton Island to the Coast Guard on December 15, 1966, the Coast Guard acquired the last of the Navy's deep-draft ice-breaking fleet. The result of this transfer, effected under an agreement between the U. S. Navy and the Treasury Department, is to make the Coast Guard the chief ice-breaking agency for the Federal Government. The newly acquired icebreakers will support the Navy in polar operations. The Coast Guard is now studying designs for a new polar icebreaker. The study does not exclude the possibility of nuclear power, should this prove economically and operationally feasible.

With the commissioning of the new high-endurance cutter Hamilton, the Coast Guard will have at its disposal the first of a scheduled total of 33 highly sophisticated cutters designed for the more complex needs of tomorrow. The Hamilton, the largest cutter ever built by the Coast Guard, will possess many advanced features. They include closed-circuit TV, the most powerful twin-gas-turbine and diesel engine propulsion system on any American ship, a flight deck capable of accommodating two amphibious helicopters, air conditioning, and a cruising range of about 10,000 miles or half way round the world at 20 knots.

In the air the Coast Guard has acquired additional HH-52A amphibious helicopters, and it is experimenting with a twin-rotor helicopter for Service use. In recent months the Coast Guard has purchased a new-type EC-130E airplane especially designed and configured for monitoring its worldwide Loran network.

Aids to Navigation. To provide southeast Asia with a system of electronic navigational aids, the Coast Guard has constructed a chain of Loran-C stations in that part of the world. Installations have been built in Thailand and off the coast of the Republic of South Viet Nam. Loran (Long Range Aid to Navigation) was developed by the Coast Guard early in World War II. Currently, the Loran network circles the world, reaching from the North Atlantic to the South China Sea and from the Arctic to the Mediterranean.

Replacement of the Coast Guard's picturesque old lightships with modern offshore structures moved ahead in 1966 with the commissioning of a structure at Diamond Shoals, about 12 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras, North Carolina. A contract was also negotiated for the construction of an offshore structure at Ambrose Station in the entrance to New York Harbor. It will replace the lightship at that location.

COAST GUARD OCEANOGRAPHY—A Salinity Temperature Depth Sensor was used for the first time by the U. S. Coast Guard oceanographic vessel EVERGREEN as the main sampling tool during a 1966 oceanography survey to determine if the source of the Labrador Current is formed in the Hudson Strait. Seaman David C. Brown of Albion, N. Y., guides the sensor to the ship's platform as it is hauled by winch from the deep waters of the Strait.

Looking Ahead. In recounting Service Achievements, Admiral Smith said: "We are proud of the progress we have made as a Treasury agency and are grateful for the able and sympathetic support we have received over the years. In joining the Department of Transportation, we are in no way departing from our basic mission which is to serve our country and the maritime community to the best of our ability. We shall continue to devote all our energies to these objectives in the years ahead."

It has been a crowded 176 years for the United States Coast Guard. Indications are that the next century and three quarters will be at least as eventful.

The march will take place January 31 as a climax to the month-long drive for funds to fight the more than 1,000 types of birth defects which yearly disable more children than any other health problem.

THE HUMANE SIDE OF THE VIETNAMESE WAR—Engineer 3 c Robert Sands, whose hands are toughened with rugged work on board the Coast Guard Cutter POINT GLOVER at Viet Nam, caressingly applies first aid to the injured hand of a child on Tamassou Island in the Gulf of Thailand. Sands is a native of Everett, Pa.

THE HUMANE WAR FOR SAFETY AT SEA—One of the many thousands of calls for assistance which the Coast Guard answered during 1966 was the case of the CARA CARA in September. Four U. S. Coast Guard boats cluster around the burning fishing trawler off the coast of Massachusetts. A Coast Guard HH-52A amphibious helicopter lowers a basket with additional fire-fighting equipment. All seven crewmen were safely removed to one of the boats. After the flames were brought under control, another Coast Guard craft towed the CARA CARA to Scituate, Mass.
